

Charles T. Rippy, Jr., Patricia Rojo In Surprise Nuptials

Coming as a complete surprise to many of their friends here is the announcement of the marriage of Miss Patricia Lucille Rojo, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Brilliant Installation Marks Year's Conclusion For Junior Clubwomen

As a fitting conclusion to the year, members of the Torrance Junior Woman's club held installation of officers at the clubhouse recently.

Mrs. H. L. Wagner, who was installed as president, will serve her second term as leader of the group. During her past year of office the club has enjoyed its most successful period since its organization three years ago.

Installing officer was Mrs. C. F. Anderson, who has been president of the Los Angeles District of Federation of Women's Clubs for the past year. Officers who were inducted and who will serve with Mrs. Wagner for the coming year are as follows:

Mmes. Don Moshos, first vice president; J. P. Montague, second vice president; Carl Forkum, third vice president; Malcolm Garton, recording secretary; Muriel Floyd, corresponding secretary; Rufus Sandstrom, treasurer; H. P. Jensen, reporter; Robert Klink, auditor and Frank Farrell, parliamentarian. Sponsors for the group, who were also inducted, were Mrs. H. E. Massie, Mrs. Sam V. Rauss and Mrs. H. L. Sahlh. The girls' lovely corsages, presented at the time of installation, varied in color to signify the duties and requirements of their offices.

To conclude the installation ceremony, Mrs. Anderson presented each past president of the Juniors with a Junior Woman's club pin. Those women so honored were Mrs. Earl Clayton, Mrs. Ina May Maupin and Mrs. H. L. Wagner. Gifts also were presented to Mrs. H. E. Massie and Mrs. Joe H. Moore in appreciation of their help as past presidents.

Preceding the installation ceremony, a musical program was enjoyed when Miss Mary Louise Aord and Miss Geraldine Earen favored the group with piano selections.

Refreshments were served to members and guests with Mrs. Joe H. Moore and Mrs. Rufus Sandstrom pouring at the tea table. The hostess committee was headed by Mrs. O. W. Hakanson and included Mmes. W. O. Clausing, Jack McCune, Earl Clayton, G. T. Derouin, O. L. Crowell, R. Sandstrom and Miss Lois Jayne Allen.

Former Herald Carriers Among Those Killed

Three former carriers of the Torrance Herald were among those many gallant lads who fought and died that this country might remain free.

James R. Herlett, a son of Mrs. Grace Smith, formerly of 2436 Cabrillo ave., was a lieutenant in the infantry and gave his life while leading a platoon in fighting in the European Theatre.

Louis T. Madore, a cousin of Mrs. Mary Vonderahe, women's editor of the Herald, was a corporal in the Army Air Forces and made the supreme sacrifice Jan. 21, 1943, when the B-17 on which he served as gunner failed to return after a flight over Alaska.

William Newton Sleeth, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert S. Sleeth, 1616 Post ave., was a lieutenant in the Army Air Corps. The young flier was reported missing while piloting his attack bomber in operations in the South Pacific and was added to the list of Gold Stars only after months of watchful waiting. These boys represented so many other normal young Americans who first saw the outside world from a street corner with a bundle of newspapers under their arms.

Of the twenty-two employees on the staff of the Torrance Herald, more than half of them are veterans of World Wars I and II.

First Helicopter Mail Pickup May Be Part Of Air Show Here Starting Fri.

If it is at all possible, arrangements will be made to have the first helicopter mail pickup from the Torrance area take place on July 5 as a part of the first day of the big two-day air circus and exhibition to be held on the Torrance Army airport, entrance to which for the show will be on 101st street.

M. H. Ackerman, postoffice inspector in charge, said that the tests probably will be completed by July 5 and that there should be no objection to use of a cachet to commemorate the air show and first helicopter pickup from Torrance.

In a letter to H. B. Lewis, general manager of the big "Veterans Welcome Home" program committee in Torrance, Ackerman said that Torrance had been selected for experimental tests, and Postmaster C. Earl Conner has been cooperating to the end that the first official pickup might be made during the air show.

Experimental flights have been conducted by personnel of the Army Air Forces under the command of Capt. C. Y. Jackson, and under the direction of Post Office Inspector in charge Ackerman, representing the post office department.

J. S. Mariott, regional administrator, Civil Aeronautics Administration, with headquarters at Santa Monica, is rendering a distinctive service in his efforts to aid in the establishment of a safe and efficient air mail service of this type.
